

LONEY ACCEPTS SPECIAL DUTY EXTENDING CAP

Major Kirk Loney, former Reno Air squadron commander who has been inactive for more than a year has returned to active status on the Wing as Col. Eugene Howell's personal representative to assist the Reno squadron in building up the outlying units.

As the Major travels a great deal throughout the state, he will be of great assistance, and it is a pleasure to have officers of this type volunteer on these special assignments.
